In a county in which there is no municipal court, the judges of the superior court may elect one or more of their number to serve as trustee, in addition to the trustees elected pursuant to subdivision (a), so that the number of judges elected shall not exceed the number of judge trustees authorized as of January 1, 1998. Any judge who is an elected member may at the judge's option designate a member of the bar of the county to act for the judge as trustee.

(c) The chair of the board of supervisors is ex officio a trustee, but the board of supervisors at the request of the chair may appoint a member of the bar of the county or any other member of the board of supervisors of the county to serve as trustee in place of said chair. The appointment of the person selected in lieu of the chair of the board of supervisors shall expire when a new chair of the board of supervisors is selected, and that appointment shall not be subject to the provisions of Section 6302.
