I believe I that I have new ideas to make Santa Cruz better for the youth of today. I believe I represent my age group and fellow peers well and I can make a positive influence on the lives of others. My dad used to serve on the commission and he has given me the moral compass and independence to succeed. My dad is the biggest role model and influence in my life and my dream is to succeed in helping others such as he has his whole life. I would be a person who would work hard to succed and contribute to this commission in whatever way I can. I want to make a difference.

Attention: Supervisor Mardi Wornhoudt

I am forwarding an application for a Youth Representative on the Children's Commission. We currently have one vacancy and will have a second Youth Representative vacancy as Commissioner Adam Rose will be turning 18 and is preparing to move away for college. Don Hopper is the son Jim Hopper who is the Child Care Advocate / Ombudsman for our region. Jim served on the Children's Commission for over 10 years, I recommend this appointment.

Sincerely,

Jim Marshall
Children's Commission Coordinator
