To Whom it May Concern,

I am interested in serving on the Domestic Violence Commission because of the exposure I currently have to women with domestic violence in their lives. I work at the Valley Resource Center in the Healthy Start Program. Both at the center itself as well as at the various Healthy Start sites we see women on a consistent basis that are suffering domestic violence.

I feel I can give these women a voice by being able to express the challenges they face, as well as share solutions they have found.

I have been involved in the social services most of my working life and am very familiar through the work I have done with participants of the issues they face.

As a new Commissioner on the Women's Commission I am anxious to represent that body and get to work on real issues facing women in our community everyday.

Thank you for the opportunity to do so.

Sincerely,

Vicki Dyas
