SUBJECT: Capitola City Council Representative on the Workforce Investment Board

Dear Ms. Guerra,

This letter is to inform you that Mr. Rich Hill is the new City Manager for the City of Capitola and, as such, will be replacing Kathleen Molloy who was appointed while she was Interim City Manager. Does the Santa Cruz County Board of Supervisors need to make a new appointment for the Capitola City Council's representative on the Workforce Investment Board? I know Kathy was required to execute an Appointment and Oath of Office form, and wonder if Mr. Hill will need to do the same.

All correspondence regarding the Workforce Investment Board may be sent to Rich Hill.. at City of Capitola, 420 Capitola Avenue, Capitola, CA 95010.

Sincerely,

CITY OF CAPITOLA
