STATEMENT OF QUALIFICATIONS:

I have been working on cross-cultural issues related to women's equality and access on a national and international level since the early eighties. My involvement has ranged from my teaching and research in Women's Studies, to my organizing activities in national and international organizations/meetings, to serving in an advisory capacity to foundations, as well as, state and local institutions. I am committed to public service, fostering cross-cultural dialogues, cultivating women's leadership, and engaging in public policy and practice that makes a difference in women's lives. At this juncture, I am interested in situating myself in public life and feel that serving on the Santa Cruz County Women's Commission would be a perfect opportunity to do so and serve my community.
